Teaching Sexual Integrity Informing Your Choices Healing After An Abortion

Recycling Hope...In Our Community

Save The Date!

Our Annual Fundraising Gala and Dinner-Program is on the calendar...and we'd like YOU to put it on yours, too. You're warmly invited to join us on Friday, November 6, 2015, 6 – 9PM at the Monrovia Community Center in Old Town Monrovia.

YOU play a life-giving role when you support FPRC and our annual Gala. A significant portion of FPRC's budget is raised each year at our Gala. The evening is a festive event that features: great food; a stimulating and informative program; professional art for auction; stories from our clients; and more...

Please join us, along with your friends, for our third year at the Monrovia Community Center. This year's Gala is "Recycling Hope". An appropriate theme, since that is what we do best...recycle hope back into lives!

Just to give you a sneak preview of our two guest speakers for the evening:

Brenda B. Smith, Practitioner of Traditional Chinese Medicine and Licensed Acupuncturist, will be sharing about the ramifications of interrupted pregnancy as well as the physical and emotional manifestations of abortion.

Dr. Miguel Endara, who is published in The National Catholic Bioethics Quarterly among others, will be presenting a strategy for dialoguing with people about abortion. His approach is both winsome and appealing. Dr. Endara is a member of the American Philosophical Association.

Volunteer Spotlight

Janie Duncan....Janie has been around since our doors were opened. Janie is known in our community as a rock hound, go-getter, compassionate citizen, art scholar, jewelry designer...and I'm sure we're leaving out a whole host of other items! When it comes to the pregnancy center...let us count the ways she has been involved!!! Janie has served as a food-preparer extraordinaire for many events, not the least of which is our Annual Friendship Tea, held in conjunction with UMC Monrovia. Also at United Methodist Church, our thrift shop, United Thrift, is practically Janie's home away from home. When you stop by to shop each Tuesday and Thursday, 9 – 2, you'll see Janie! Janie has hosted a casual gathering of people at her home, whereby a few Board members were able to share about the work of FPRC. Thank you, Janie for your heart to serve others. We're forever grateful!

Lorraine Jones-Hicks...is a brand new volunteer! Lorraine discovered our ministry online and contacted us to see if she might become a partner. The photo shows some of her amazing talent. She makes "diaper cakes" like the ones pictured; we, then, get to bless our moms! Lorraine is a dedicated crafter...one who wishes to give back to her community. A niece of the late, great Jackie Robinson, Lorraine proves that just by reaching out, incredible ties may be formed. Her creative gifts, as well as her time and efforts, will affect another's life for the good! Doesn't get any better than that. Thank you, Lorraine!

Donor Corner

Ken Mikolasko, head of KJM Carpet, deserves a loud cheer!!! The ministry of FPRC simply cannot exist without healthy partnership between staff, clients, support staff, volunteers...and DONORS!

Ken demonstrates teamwork with a capital "T". Ken is, of course, in the carpet and flooring business. When FPRC was in dire straits for carpet, we phoned Ken. He custom-made large area rugs to cover old carpeting in our lobby. That's not all! He came to the rescue of United Thrift as well. To give a facelift to our shop, he donated large area rugs to cover the floor. During our first week in business, we had fresh "new" flooring! But the size of his heart cannot be compared to the size of a rug. He extends himself in extraordinary ways to help others. Ken mentors some of our male clients who are searching for meaning. "Guys For Guys" is the mentorship program FPRC offers the men who come to the center. Ken and his family sponsor a table each year at our annual fundraising gala. Ken, and others like him, makes FPRC happen!
